

A tour de force! O Tusitala. Tellers Of Tales, expands on modern and traditional Samoan performance, from solo and faleaitu to the productions of John Kneubuhl and Lemi Ponifasio.

Dan Taulapapa McMullin. Poet. Visual Artist. Writer. Filmmaker.

Funny, surprising, informative and touching. Sia Figiel's new play is a breath of fresh air! Lyrical and poetic, with the absence of the usual post-modern cliché. O Tusitala is a new play that everyone should see!

Victoria Nalani Kneubuhl. Samoan-Hawaiian Playwright.

132 Years Later, 'The Help'
At Robert Louis Stevenson's, Vailima
ARE

O TUSITALA TELLERS OF TALES A ONE ACTOR PLAY With 18 Characters

STARRING UELESE PETAIA

Featuring Rosaivitesaualofaoleola Solomona
& N.U.S Dance and Theater Company

Produced by Tise Saliga Fauolo

Written & Directed

by

SIA FIGIEL

Premiering At The Opening Of

GALUMOANA

THE BLUE WAVE THEATER

VAIVASE UTA

Tues, 30 May & Wed, 7 June

Doors Open: 6 pm

Show Begins: 7:30 pm

ADMISSION: $100

LIMITED SEATING

Light Refreshments

VALET PARKING AVAILABLE

Commissioned By St. Andrew's University,
Scotland

For $80 Prepaid Tickets, call 75 97249 or 7618495

Press Officer: Vanya Taule'alo

Sia Figiel uses poka, or respectfully fa'afaletui to conjure images of an imaginary time travel to the past and other dimensions that promise an evening where you can giggle and gaggle, shriek and whisper, and when the hairs on the back of your neck begin to stir, you'll know that the aiku are in residence and only those who can laugh and enjoy will be allowed to leave! Manuia le fa'asausauga a le atunu'u!

Loau Tuiloma Dr. Luafata Simanu. Retired Professor. Historian. Poet. Actor.